STIFF AND SPRING POINT MINING SHOVELS, For sale at E. J. NORTHRUP & CO'S

Hayward's Mine in Sutter

The following from the San Francisco Alta is illustrative of the successful working of quartz mines in California:

The great quartz mines of the State are now attracting earnest attention, since long and persevering experiment has at last divulged the true nature of the ledges and the most effective mode of developing them. The quartz district having a breadth of from fifteen to a hundred miles, commences in the southeast of Mariposa district, runs northwesterly along the foothills of the Sierra Nevada five hundred miles longitudinally through the center of the State until it passes into Oregon and melts away on the Pacific shores. The ledge has generally an eastern dip and at different angles, from horizontal to perpendicular. The veins of varying lengths, range from a few inches to some twenty five feet or more thick. Throughout this ridge holes have been punctured with more or less success, according to the skill, sagacity, perseverance and capital of the operators. These have indeed been misled by various theories of inexperienced science as to the nature of the deposits, by ill founded opinions as to the depth to which the ore extends, and very many shafts have been abandoned for various reasons. Numbers have however, been very successful. But the great example of quartz mining, not only as a wealth of production, but as shedding more light upon the real nature and conditions of quartz mining than others, seems to be that of A. Hayward, at Sutter Creek, Amador county.

This mine is now 1,200 feet perpendicular descent from the surface, probably 300 feet below the ocean. It is likely it holds the deepest gold mine in the world and also the most productive. Yet the conditions of its yield are such as to indicate that its powers are but barely developed, that it settles the question of deep mining, and that the wealth [illegible] attained in that mountainous ridge is far beyond the wildest dreams of the most sanguine Californian hitherto. Hayward, a lawyer by education, having had some experience in the lead mines of the Upper Missouri, pushed across the Plains early in the gold excitement, and reached California in 1850. After much exploration his attention was fixed at Sutter creek, Amador county, in 1851. A mine had been commenced which satisfied the conditions that his sagacity and experience had laid down. He became interested one fifth, and went to work with that indomitable will and perseverance which, like faith, move mountains. The vein was but $8 to $10 rock, but broad, and with difficulty worked, at a time when flour was $50 per barrel, wages in proportion and living very high. With those high expenses and poor rock he struggled for years. In 1857 he was heavily in debt, but having bought out all the partners, he became sole proprietor. While he had carried on this desperate struggle, many around him dropped out of the race. They had been frozen out, and were forced to abandon their shafts overwhelmed with debt. Hayward was not to be backed down. He had not spent a dollar recklessly, and he observed that the ore improved as the shaft grew deeper. The vein was broad, so that in following it down the shaft formed itself. Not a shovelful was taken out that was not reduced. The east wall of granite went down nearly perpendicular, and that was closely followed. At some hundred feet in depth, the ore paid $12 to $15. The expenses being kept within the closest limits, this began to pay, and each succeeding year it has given greater results, until at the depth of 1,200 feet, the ore averages $25, with a breadth of 22 feet, and widening as it leaves the shaft in both directions, north and south.

At this depth the present writer picked out samples of ore from masses of probably $50 rock. The smooth granite wall rises, nearly perpendicular, 1,200 feet to the surface, and the timbering is done between the walls. The logs are hauled some six miles, at a cost of $6 each. The gallery runs north and south along this wall. The 1,000 feet level is some 500 feet in length, communicating with three shafts, giving perfect ventilation, from this the ore has been mostly removed. The lower level is some 40 feet long, and at either end the beautiful quartz, with its blue and white vertical ribbons, glitters with the metals. At this depth the value of the ore at the north end improves faster than that of the south end—rather reversing the process above. Some of the ore here is $45 to $50, and some ranges probably nearly to $100. The ore above in the galleries, and that here in sight, is perhaps equal to three years run, say $2,000,000. Into this depth drops iron buckets, suspended by strong ropes of continuous length, manufactured by the San Francisco works. These ropes, passing over swifters at the top, wind over drums, worked by a 100 horse engine of the most approved pattern for service. This operates night and day. Three sets of hands relieve each other every eight hours below, and sixty tons per day are sent to the surface, dumped into a rail car, which descends by its own weight to the mill, a short distance on Sutter creek, so named from the fact that Sutter once mined there. The mill runs forty stamps of 450 pounds each, at a speed of some eighty strokes per minute. This rapid trituration of the ore and sulphurets is found to be much more effective than the slower strokes of heavier stamps. The mill is driven by water during the wet season. This is brought by flume from a very substantial dam above. A powerful engine is also at hand, and at this season, when water runs low, it assists the water wheel, gradually increasing in power until later, the water is taken off altogether and reserved for the washing. The "clean up," every fourteen days, varies slightly in results, the tendency being always to increase. The ore is not selected, but always that is taken which most facilitates the operations of the miners. No day's work is thrown away, and no stroke of the pick made that does not tend directly to the main point of getting out ore. This is the secret of success.

From this mine, which has been worked thirteen years by Hayward, himself a most experienced and skillful operator in every branch of the business, assisted by three able men—Hazlehurst, Morgan and Hunter—there has been extracted probably six to seven millions of dollars. This is a great fact, but what is more important to the public, a still greater fact presents itself, viz: that quartz veins increase in width and value in proportion to depth. The mine in question shows a true fissure—an injection of gold-bearing quartz from below, and which tapers off in size and value as it approaches the surface. Following it down a distance of 1,200 feet has demonstrated the fact. There are no other mines that approach this in depth. The Eureka mine, in Grass Valley, is 900 feet down, but is of richer rock than was the Sutter Creek mine at that depth. The ore is of the same appearance in both. Considering all these circumstances, the public have the right to look forward to a gold production in this State of a magnitude compared to which all that has gone forth before is as nothing. It is to be borne in mind that miners now have not to encounter the fearful trials that beset Hayward's early struggles. The cost of living is barely one fourth; wages are less than one half; transportation is greatly reduced; steam and rail now bring both Sutter Creek and Grass Valley, 100 miles each from San Francisco, within twenty hours journey, without breaking a night's rest, and, lastly, money, instead of being 10 per cent per month is 10 per cent per annum. Capital is now so abundant and so understandingly employed that no man who has a good mine need wait capital to work it. The facilities of travel into Nevada and Amador counties will embrace every important section and tap every reservoir of wealth.

REMOVED.—It has been rumored that the editor of the San Jose (Cal.) Mercury has been removed from the office of Inspector of Quicksilver. The alleged cause is that he has been active in the endeavor to break up the Union party. The Mercury gives the true cause as follows:

We learn from reliable authority that the fiat has gone forth, and that as soon as our successor can be named and qualified, we shall be relieved from further care of Uncle Samuel's interest in the quicksilver business of this district. Brother McCullough is slightly of the opinion that we are not "sound" on the Presidential "goose." You are right Mac. We think that Andy is the policy "sell" that was ever perpetrated on this [illegible] power, and if the country survives his "my biggest" management it will be because there is a nation, behind him greater than himself—the American people, which with God's help is all sufficient to save and redeem this nation.

Opinion not Treason

Senator Doolittle is reported to have said in a late public speech, that "the Union of the States under the constitution is the corner stone of the Government," and he who denies it, let him come from the South, East, West or North, is a traitor." Now that the Constitution is the bond of union is an undeniable proposition. It is as unquestionable as that respiration is the condition of human life. It was scarcely worth while for Senator Doolittle to make a journey to Philadelphia for the sole purpose of saying that two and two are four. But when he proceeds to declare that any other opinion is treason, he commits a foolish error, for the Constitution to which he exhorts obedience expressly defines treason to consist in levying war against the United States.

An opinion can not be treason. It may be false. It may be dangerous. It may lead to treason as the doctrine of State sovereignty did. In a time of actual war its expression may be an efficient aid to the enemy, and therefore the expression may be properly repressed. But to denounce any political opinion as treason is to commit the unpardonable sin of Rome against the human mind. The Southern school of politics in this country has always held and proclaimed the theory of State sovereignty, and it has always been plain that if reduced to practice that theory would lead to civil war. But that opinion was not treason until it fired at the Star of the West. If it were Senator Hayne was as guilty as Quantrell. It seems to us that a Senator of the United States should be able to make so cardinal a distinction. We pay Mr. Doolittle the compliment of believing that he does not consider Mr. Fessenden equally guilty with Louis Wigfall and James M. Mason.

It is very necessary that this distinction should be observed during the great debate in which we are now engaged. The question of reorganization is to be settled by argument, not by rhetorical vituperation. When Mr. Stevens says that the late rebels deserve hell, or when Mr. Cowan informs us that they behave like saints, nothing is gained except a conviction that neither of those gentlemen are likely to give any valuable counsel in the emergency. So when Mr. Doolittle declares by plain implication that those who do not agree with him are traitors, he also certifies his inability to treat the question as it should be treated. An argument which is adequately answered by saying "You're another," is not a very powerful argument.—Harper's Weekly.

Wilkes' Spirit of the Times in the issue of June 23, indicts Secretary Seward for falsity and imbecility and demands that President Johnson remove him. It concludes a long article thus:

> The only thing that seems not to have been altered by it (the war) is the soul of Mr. Seward, and that being too cold and narrow for the broad and generous impulses of this nation, we propose that the Senate shall again ask the President to give us another Premier. Every consideration of gravity demands such action. Most of all it is demanded, in order that the advancing fortunes of the restored Republic shall no longer be represented by a failure. Far be it from us however, to apply this suggestion to the prestige of Andrew Johnson.

FELL FROM A HOUSE TOP.—The Montana Post says Mr. A. D. Kirkpatrick recently fell from a house top on which he was at work in Helena, and was badly but not fatally hurt. Mr. K. is a brother of our fellow citizen J. M. Kirkpatrick.—Avalanche.

OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE STATE

FRIDAY MORNING, JULY 6, 1866

A Fresh Trouble.

William H. Seward has again fallen under the Democratic ban. His popularity with their party has proved ephemeral. Their admiration of his "conservatism" has been extremely short-lived. They had supposed him won over completely from political fellowship with the friends of his early career, and to be devoted entirely—if not to the fortunes of the Democracy—at least to the work of promoting dissension in the ranks of the great Union party. But the Secretary is not altogether what he seemed to be. Recognizing the fact that Congress has triumphed in presenting a plan for restoration which will supersede the President's, and that the Union party will go undividedly for this plan, Mr. Seward makes a conciliatory speech and says there is now "no necessity for separation between the President, the Congress and the party of the Union." And again: "Both the President and Congress might well expect to be equally involved in the calamity which should dismiss the Union party from the national councils." This is particularly offensive to the rebels, because it implies that they must not on any account be permitted to obtain control of the Government. They cannot believe that in thus stating, Mr. Seward truly represents the views of the President and are therefore calling on the Premier, to resign. The "loyal" wing or war faction of the Democracy, are equally affronted by other portions of the Secretary's Auburn speech. The New York World, as the principal organ of this faction, is terribly incensed because Mr. Seward classes rebels and Democrats together as persons whom it is desirable to have "converted." "Rebels and their Democratic abettors," an expression which occurs several times in the Auburn speech, gives the World unusual concern. The imputation that the Democracy favored the rebellion would not give offence to the New York News or Chicago Times; but it is too much for the World or Boston Post to endure. Hence they now revile and abuse Seward quite as vehemently as they did years ago. They had been flattering themselves that they had obtained complete control of the Administration; and accordingly are indignant whenever they see indications of a refractory disposition on the parts of any of its members. Having reposed full confidence in the belief that Johnson and Seward were wholly theirs, they now feel deeply injured in finding that that confidence was not justified. But reposing great faith in Johnson still, they call on him to dismiss his entire Cabinet and appoint another more acceptable to them. Almost the entire Democratic press is clamoring for change. Even their organ in this city, presuming the President is theirs, tenders its advice on the same subject. The "noble tribune" is hesitating to heed their councils, being evidently disinclined to sever the last tie that unites him with the Unionists, and to go into a minority party.

THE CHASM TOO WIDE TO BE BRIDGED.—Those Union men who lately thought the differences between President Johnson and the Union party were only differences of opinion—both seeking the same end—and that there still remained a chance for harmony between them, will certainly recognize the impossibility of it, in the President's last message to Congress. The President goes out of his way to assure Congress that nothing they may do, while eleven States are unrepresented, can meet his approval. If the proposed amendment contained anything against which the President had stood committed, we should find in that fact an explanation of the motive he had in this last assurance to Congress. But it does not contain a single proposition to which his own sayings and official acts have not given direct or tacit consent. The proposition to amend the Constitution is but a repetition of what he himself did last year. Beyond that, the subordinate idea of excluding leading rebels from office, is but copied from his oft repeated acts. The prohibition against Raphael Semmes holding the office of judge at Mobile, is a practical application of the proposition submitted by Congress. So we might go through all the subordinate propositions which the amendment contains, and we should find no single thing proposed which the President has not acted upon within the last year. His objection, then, is not to the principle involved, but rather to the recognition of the right of Congress to do anything. He is chiefly anxious, in his message, to assure the country that he has cut loose from the party which made him Vice President, and to say again as he in effect said in his late speeches, that the chasm which he himself has made between them, is not capable of being bridged over.

Johnson and his Secretaries have recently asked to have the test oath repealed for the alleged reason that there are not enough of men in the South who can take it to fill the subordinate offices of the Departments. Recently a Mr. Glers, of Alabama, a thoroughly loyal man, who brought recommendations for loyalty and capability, signed by Mr. Lincoln, Gen. Grant and Gen. Thomas, was refused the appointment as Commissioner for the collection of taxes in his State, and the place was conferred on one F. W. Sykes, a member of the rebel legislature of Alabama, and who therefore cannot take the test oath. What does this show but that the difficulty complained of does not grow out of a lack of men who can take the test oath, but out of the preference which the Administration naturally feels for men who are tainted with the rebellion?

The Springfield (Mass.) Republican says that "thousands and thousands of the most intelligent Republicans all over the country agree with the Cabinet in the support of President Johnson." Yet not three months ago the Republican said that only a single Republican journal, the New York Times, stood by the President in his veto of the Civil Rights Act. The New York Herald, with all its versatility, couldn't change from one side to another with greater dexterity and agility than that.

The Tribune's Washington correspondent says of the President's late speech to serenaders that he "spoke only a few minutes and in a very low tone, alluded to himself only 26 times and gave out no new doctrines." Wonderful exhibition of modesty.

LETTER FROM BIG BEND.

AVALANCHE, June 17, 1866.

EDITOR OREGONIAN:

So far the Big Bend country has not fulfilled the expectations entertained of it. The snow is melting very fast, the streams very high and it snows or rains every day. On Avalanche creek about fifty claims have been opened. Of that number four are paying from $6 to $20 per day to the hand, of the balance, more than half have been abandoned. The remainder are being worked for grub by persons who, like your correspondent have more time than money.

On French Creek, Bailey & Co., are taking out from 20 to 25 ounces per day. Monton & Co., Shiel & Co., and the Discovery claim are doing well. Wages rate from $7 to $9 per day. Flour $50 per hundred. Bacon $1 12½ per pound. Sugar $1. Beans 80 cents. Tobacco 50 cents per pound. Gum Boots $30 per pair.

Two pack trains have arrived from Seymour, (Head of Shuswap Lake.) Rates of freight 25 cents from Seymour to French creek. There are about six hundred men now in the mines, not above one third of whom are employed.

The face of the country is very rough, high mountains, deep rocky streams and densely wooded with fir pine and spruce. A saw mill is in operation on French Creek. Lumber brings $11 per hundred. It will be three months yet before these mines can be pronounced as a success or a failure.

STATE ITEMS.

The firm of Waite & Schwatka, publishers of the Agriculturist and Pioneer, has been dissolved and the business is continued by Mr. A. C. Schwatka.

Great activity in the copper mining interests of Curry county is reported.

The Statesman says: "We are informed by Messrs. Cass and Swain, of French Prairie, that a certain Paul Hendrick, with half a dozen aliases, is perambulating the county, selling 'Love powders,' which, upon examination by Mr. Clark, the druggist, prove to be a composition of Morphine and Cantharides."

Prof. Woods the Botanist who has collected and classified about fifteen hundred varieties of plants in the State of California is now in Oregon, making a collection. He designs publishing a work descriptive of the trees, shrubs and plants of the Pacific coast.

A new lodge of Good Templars has been organized at Eugene City with about twenty members.

Spencer Butte Lodge, (Eugene City) No. 9, I. O. O. F., at its regular meeting June 26th elected the following officers: F. B. Bristow, N. G.; R. C. Foley, V. G.; Joel Ware, R. Secretary; J. B. Sweet, Treasurer.

The Agriculturist says: "The Board of Managers of the Oregon State Agricultural Society, have ordered a new track to be made on the grounds of the Society (inside the one now used for trials of speed,) to be kept for pleasure riding and training purposes. This improvement will add much to the pleasure of visitors, besides insuring greater safety to those engaged in contending for premiums and preparing for trials. We are also informed by Judge Peebles, one of the Executive Committee, that among other improvements making, the erection of about twenty new stables may be noticed."

Mr. Cross of Salem has fifty head of four year old steers of his own raising which will average over one thousand pounds weight, each.

During the firing of the sunset salute at the Dalles on the 4th, a man named William Watson was severely injured by the premature discharge of the piece. He will lose the right arm to the elbow, and, probably, the left. It is feared also that he has received bodily injuries which may prove fatal. Dr. Brook, who was near at the time of the accident, furnished all the aid possible. Mr. Watson was an employe of the O. S. N. Co.

From Monday night to Wednesday evening, the Columbia river at the Dalles rose near two feet.

The 3d inst. was the hottest day at the Dalles within the memory of the "oldest inhabitant." The mercury ran up to 109° in the shade.

Messrs. F. Ferrill & Co., says the Astoria Gazette, have commenced the construction of very important improvements in the immediate vicinity of our village—just at the junction of the McClure and Shively land claims. The works are to be no less than a lumber manufacturing, dressing and finishing establishment. It will consist of a saw mill proper, with machinery for dressing and finishing the lumber into doors, sash, moulding and ornamental work generally, for cabinet work, &c., &c. Machinery for making shingles, staves, headings, pails, &c., and other work generally will be added. The works when completed will employ from 50 to 100 men. The kitchen and lodging house, 20 by 60 feet, is now up. The first structure of the mill will be 40 by 100 feet. Next will follow an L of the same dimensions.

Mr. F. Boorman has commenced running a four horse coach from Skipanon Landing to the Summer House, lower end of Clatsop Plains, for the accommodation of sea beach visitors.

FROM MONTANA.

We clip the following from our Montana files to the 16th ult:

GULCH MINING.

A letter from New York Gulch says:

A number of claims on this bar are being worked, and will average about $100 a day to the hand. In Uncle Johnnie's Gulch, about 1,500 feet of the lower end will average about $25 per hand. There is a splendid ranch under rapid improvement at mouth of White's Gulch, owned by Messrs. Hall & Co., of Mill Creek. We predict for them a noble harvest of glittering gold, and think that their example might be copied with advantage by vast numbers of those who are spending their time and money in running after the golden pot at the end of the rainbow. I have also had occasion to visit the bars below the mountains, on Maple Gulch, which empties into the Missouri just above the Canon Ferry. These bars are very extensive, and lie on each side of the gulch.

The average pay at Wisconsin Gulch is about $25 per day to the hand.

A letter from Confederate Gulch states that $18,000 were washed from the claim of Judson & Metcalf on Montana bar, in seven days and that $4,000 was carried away in a bucket from Smith & Buschelt's claim, after a run of ten hours.

A COACH CAPSIZED—PASSENGERS INJURED.

On the 5th inst., as the Overland Stage from Salt Lake to Virginia city was passing through Portneuf Canon, between 10 and 11 o'clock, P. M., owing to the want of lamps on the coach, the vehicle was capsized and rolled over twice. The passengers were all more or less bruised, but Mr. Gibbons, more unfortunate than the rest, sustained a fracture of the arm. Dr. Hopkins, who was himself suffering from severe contusions, bound up the fractured limb and sent the patient back to Salt Lake City.

A MAN ACCIDENTLY SHOOTS HIMSELF.

W. F. Ross, while prospecting on Beaverhead, opposite the mouth of Rattlesnake, on the last day of May, accidently shot himself. Mr. Stapleton, another man, and the deceased were in company. The day before the accident, Mr. Stapleton had shot a deer, and Mr. Ross had selected some of the tallow for a special purpose, and had hung it up. Mr. Stapleton was fishing, and the other gentleman preparing supper. Mr. Ross, seeing the birds eating the tallow, raised up the tent-cloth, reached in for his rifle, and pulling it towards him, muzzle first, the hammer caught in a buffalo robe and the gun was discharged, the contents inflicting a ghastly wound in his breast, from the effects of which he died in a few minutes. The deceased was the partner of Com. Bray, in the prospecting business, and was highly esteemed for his intelligence and moral worth.

WAR WITH THE "BLOODS."

Baptiste Champagne and Jerry—two half-breeds—were the leaders of the pursuit of the three Blood Indians killed on the 2d inst. After a hot chase, the victors returned with the arms of the hostile and hated Bloods, as a token of victory, and the whole skin of the head of one of them was taken by a Dutchman known as "John the Tailor." There is war to the knife between the settlers and the Bloods, who are accused of being the authors of most of the depredations committed by the Indians, and death is the doom of every one of the tribe that comes near Benton. Were sufficient protection vouchsafed to the whites, by Government, it would be well for the Indians; but as it stands, it is kill or be killed, whenever a Benton white or a half-breed meets a Blood Indian.

TWO MEN KILLED BY INDIANS.

On the 5th of June, two unarmed whites were shot by Indians, (supposed to have been Blackfeet,) about ten miles north of McClellan Gulch. One was killed and the other seriously wounded. The Indians have recently been quite troublesome in that locality.

ARRIVAL OF ST. LOUIS STEAMERS.

The steamer Big Horn, with twenty passengers, seventy-one days from St. Louis, arrived at Benton on the 8th of June. The W. B. Dance arrived on the same day. The Only Chance, Amelia and Goldfinch have probably arrived ere this, and a number of others were daily expected.

THE TOWN OF HELENA.

The town of Helena is growing very rapidly. Stone buildings, new fronts and mammoth signs seem to spring up in the night time. The town is full of strangers, other-siders predominating, and Californians who go there expecting to see no one they know, and they are acquainted with nearly every other man.

FROM IDAHO.

The following is from the Boise City Statesman of the 30th ult:

ROBBERY OF A DROVER.

Mr. French, Messenger of W. F. & Co., came down from Idaho yesterday, from whom we learn that a man by the name of Shoemaker was robbed of $1,700 day before yesterday on the trail between Placerville and Hog'em. Shoemaker was a drover from Oregon. The robbers, two in number, fired at him, and he jumped off his horse and escaped. His money was in his cantenas on the saddle.

ALTURAS ITEMS.

Mr. James, agent of the Waddingham Company, came down yesterday on business for the company. He says the mill will start a week from next Monday, on rock from the Confederate Star. They are raising rock for that purpose now, aiming to get two hundred tons ahead before starting. The Harris & Benson Mill is expected to start about the same time. The Idaho Mill will also start soon. Considerable sickness prevails at Yuba, principally from mountain fever. Two deaths have occurred.

INDIANS ON ORO FINO MOUNTAIN.

The following extract shows the last move of the Indians in Owyhee:

RUBY CITY, June 27, 1866.

ED. STATESMAN:—Last night the Indians gathered all the stock on War Eagle Mountain and drove it off. Their shouts on driving the stock were heard by the workmen on the Poorman Claim, in plain sight of Silver and Ruby Cities. They shot at a man not far from the Oro Fino and New York ([illegible]) Mill, and they have stolen all the stock on and about Catherine Creek and have driven in the herders and ranchmen in that vicinity.

BROWNE.

MISCELLANEOUS ITEMS.

The Moore brothers have the frame of their new building up, and partly enclosed—will be enclosed next week. The building is 44x40 feet and three stories high. They intend to have it ready to run by the time the harvest is ready to grind.

The cool and wet weather of this season is proving unfavorable for corn in this valley, and the present prospect is now very poor for a good crop of that grain this season. All other kinds of grain are looking well.

By Owyhee stage last night we learn that a shooting match took place at Silver, day before yesterday, between a couple of sports, one of whom got a hole punched clear through him.

The Mountain Mill Company are getting a fine lot of lumber on hand at their yard. Their clear stuff is unexcelled. The lumber trade with Owyhee is becoming quite an item.

Farmers are now quite busy cutting hay. Harvesting will begin in the earliest fields in about ten days.

FROM WASHINGTON TERRITORY.

The Olympia Tribune of the 30th ult., contains the following items:

Monday and Tuesday of this week was excessively hot, when compared with a few weeks previous. The thermometer ranged from 85° to 90° on both days. On Tuesday evening a thunder storm arose, and passed to the south-east causing an agreeable change in the temperature of the atmosphere.

The U. S. war vessel Saranac, Scott, Commander, arrived in our port on Thursday. On Friday afternoon many of our citizens availed themselves of an invitation to pay her a visit, and were shown around by her gentlemanly officers. She will probably remain here until Monday next.

The Revenue Steamer Lincoln, Capt. J. W. White, paid our port a visit on Tuesday last, remaining until Friday morning, when she left for special duty, with Deputy Collector G. F. Whitworth on board.

The Fifth Christian Annual Meeting, (or conference,) will commence on the 27th day of July, 1866, being the last Friday in the month, at Frost's Prairie, Thurston Co.

A doctor in Colfax, Cal., has a pig with four ears, two bodies, two tails and eight legs.—Exchange.

It is but the "double" of Jeremy Diddler's pig.

[DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

OUR SAN FRANCISCO DISPATCH.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 5.—The eastern line is working but no reports have been received.

The 90th Anniversary of American Independence was celebrated in this city yesterday in a manner worthy of the steadfast patriotism of the people of San Francisco and creditable alike to the Committee of Arrangements, to the Marshal of the day and to the thousands of citizens who joined in the military and civic procession and to the tens of thousands who came out to witness the spectacle, and by their politeness and orderly conduct, aided in the success of the general jubilee. The procession was one of the largest and most gorgeously arranged that has ever paraded the streets of our city. [illegible] to keep up the interest of the spectators to the end. Instead of the usual ragtag and bobtail that follows up the rear on such occasions the line terminated yesterday with the grand [illegible] escorted by the veteran corps and a detachment of U. S. cavalry. A fitting climax to the magnificent spectacle was the fire works in the evening, it was the most successful pyrotechnic exhibition ever given in San Francisco. It is estimated that not less than 40,000 persons witnessed the display.

Barley—Prices are without change, the range being 75@87½c ℔ 100lbs for light feed to choice brewing.

Oats—No demand; quotations range from $1 37½ to $1 50 ℔ 100lbs for fair to choice.

Potatoes—Bays are coming forward in small quantities. Missions are quoted at 75@80c ℔ 100lbs.

Dairy Products—Choice ranch butter is 32½@35c; cheese 12@13c; eggs 40@41c, with some sales as high as 42½c.

Wool—Shipments for the past week have been very light not aggregating over 80,000lbs, the most of which was sold for 12½@15c, being either burry or inferior shipping grades. No. 1 shipping grades are of course higher, say 18@21c.

Hides—250 sold at 15c.

Money Market—Mining Stocks.

The market is quiet. Gold opened in New York on the 3d at 154 and fluctuating.

Sterling exchange at 108@108½.

English matters were very unsatisfactory, and things financially, of course, were very unsettled.

No later gold dispatches than the above. The local money market continues easy.

The mining stock market presents the following fluctuations since the morning board on Tuesday:

Overman advanced $3; Yellow, $15; Ophir and Belcher, each, $5, and Imperial, $1. On the contrary, Gould declined $5; Savage, $2 50; Confidence, $1 50; Chollar-Potosi, $1. Spring Valley was sold at 52.

Legal Tenders were quoted at the board at 76½ bid, and asked.

Arrived, July 3d—French bark Orixa, 160 days from Bordeaux.

July 4th—British bark Jeddo, 135 days from London.

Sailed, July 3d—Bark Aurora, for Bellingham Bay.

July 4th—British brig Derwent, Sydney.

July 5th—Bark Almatia, Portland.

FROM THE NORTH.

The Fourth at Seattle.

SEATTLE, July 5.—The anniversary day of the nation's independence was celebrated here with unusual spirit by a Masonic procession, salutes, an oration and a grand ball in the evening.

The steamers Eliza Anderson, from Victoria, J. B. Libby, from Olympia, New Roads and Resolute from Port Madison, Colfax from Seabeck, and Cyrus Walker from Port Gamble, brought in crowds from the surrounding towns. No accident occurred to mar the general harmony.

Attention, Portland Zouave Cadets.—Regular monthly meeting this Friday evening, at 7½ o'clock. By order of H. M. SWAFFORD, Sec'y.

"THOSE ARE SPLENDID!" "What are splendid?" "Why those ENAMELED CARD-PICTURES and exquisite SUN PEARLS which are now taken at ELLSWORTH & CARDWELL'S GALLERY, 89 First street. This is the only place in the city where these beautiful specimens of the Photographic Art can be had. All other kinds of pictures taken as usual.

THAT OLD GREENBACK CASE!

I am still obliged to accept of Legal Tender Notes at Portland ever since Dec 17, 1862, for the rent of my Handsome Brick Store, corner of Morrison and Front streets, I feel compelled to announce for the benefit of the public, that leased the building of me Feb 17, 1862, for a term of years, at which time there was no such currency in vogue, and it was understood the terms were Cash. Since the date above stated, I have received the depreciated currency regularly for the rent of the making less than two fifths of the real amount said Mayer was to pay. He had secured the building at very advantageous rates, and even were he now to comply with his contract, and pay in Coin, would be getting the best bargain in the city. I make this statement to show the public what kind of a man he must be to take such undue advantages of the times to convert a few dollars to himself by LEGAL SWINDLING. The public can readily see how much it costs to have such tenants in such costly buildings as the one referred to above.

JACOB MAYER

THE FOURTH OF JULY IN PORTLAND.—The citizens of Portland turned out en masse on Wednesday to celebrate the anniversary of the Declaration of Independence as the magnitude of the occasion and the [illegible] of the weather demanded it should be observed. The early part of the morning was consumed in getting off to the neighboring towns on steamboats, excursions and boat rides. From six o'clock a. m., at which time the steamer Cascade left for the Cascades of the Columbia with a small party of excursionists on board, until [illegible] o'clock p. m., six steamboats left the wharves, all of them having more or less excursionists on board. The Fannie Troup, and Julia took passengers to Vancouver. The Hoyt, and we understand the Enterprise took passengers to Oregon City, at both of which places the citizens, militia and societies of Portland assisted in the ceremonies of the day. After the boats above mentioned, the First United States Cavalry Band, under the leadership of Prof. Dupont, made their appearance in our streets, collected the various fire companies in the city who were to join with No. 2 company in the "housing" of the new steam fire engine Multnomah. Proceeding to the house, the steamer was drawn out and paraded in the front of each House of the Department, at all of which cheers were rendered with a will—with the exception of Columbian Engine Company No. 1, which, to say the least, very unbecomingly refused to even open their doors or tap the bell. The procession halted at the intersection of Washington and First streets, when the engine was put to work, throwing alternately one, two, and four streams of water, until the supply of the cistern was exhausted. The engine worked nobly and was enthusiastically commended. During this trial crowds of people had assembled to witness the operation, and the band enlivened the occasion with choice pieces of music. At the conclusion of the trial the engine was "Housed" in its place by Vigilance Hook and Ladder Company No. 1, Willamette Engine Company No. 1, and Protection Engine Company No. 4, there being a vacant space on the ropes for Columbian Engine Company No. 1. The guests were then entertained by the members of Multnomah Engine Company No. 2, in a manner highly satisfactory, and the utmost good cheer prevailed until about 2 o'clock p. m., when the several companies were escorted to their respective houses, each [illegible] who was an active member of the Fire Department of the city of Portland. In the evening, Messrs. Lappeus & Knowles' new Music Hall was lighted, and a very select party was given, at which about four hundred persons participated.

THE BULLETIN CORRESPONDENT ON THE PHILHARMONIC SOCIETY, ETC.—The Portland correspondent of the San Francisco Bulletin is somewhat behind-hand in his compliments to the late concert of the Philharmonic Society in this city. He says the old aria from Robert le Diable was "altogether above their comprehension"—that is the audience. "It was received with storms of applause and showers of bouquets by many good people who would be troubled to give a reason for their approbation." That is rather heavy on a certain class of citizens in this city, some of whom we know to be tolerable judges of musical matters. He says the "performance has since been elaborately criticised in both our daily papers" and by a stretch of the imagination thinks we "were reading the musical report of the N. Y. Herald." We admit that our cotemporary "slopped over" with meaningless and pointless phrases which might be called criticism by the vulgar, but this paper disclaims any attempt at criticism, the article being simply a notice, and using only such musical expressions as were thought to be really necessary. We hope the correspondent did not wish to make so invidious comparison in classing us with the musical reporter of the New York Herald, for that paper never has been, nor is now, considered an impartial or correct medium for topics of this character. Aside from what we have quoted above, the correspondent is fair in his statements.

THE SALUTE ON THE FOURTH—ACCIDENT.—In firing the salute on Wednesday morning at this city by the Portland Artillery Company, Mr. Franklin, who was posted in a position to run down cartridges had his right hand and arm so badly shattered by a premature discharge of the gun, that amputation was necessary. Drs. Glisan and Brobe performed the operation. The accident was caused through the carelessness of Capt. Paine, we are informed, who neglected to provide the man at the vent with a thumb stall. We are further informed that the persons in charge of the gun at the time were intoxicated, and some feel inclined to deeply censure Capt. Paine for gross conduct, in allowing a salute of three guns to be fired at the armory, by which the glass of the building was badly shattered, and which was done while the men were inebriated. The accident caused a delay in the firing of the morning salute after which Sergeant Robert R. Eskidson of the U. S. Artillery, took charge of the gun, and with the assistance of Corporal Wm. D. Yantiss, and private George Fitzclarence of Company L, U. S. Artillery and Wm. Blain, ex-Sergeant of Veterans, and Mr. Wm. Barker and Wm. Scott, who volunteered, completed the salute of the day. We understand that Mr. Franklin is in destitute circumstances, and is in need of material assistance from some source.

THE FOURTH AT VANCOUVER.—The celebration by the citizens of Vancouver, and the excursion to that place of the Good Templars from Portland on the Fourth of July, are spoken of in the highest terms, and having passed off so pleasantly and agreeably, we congratulate our friends on their success. The procession was most excellently conducted by chief Marshal Capt. Geo. Hodges, and his assistants, W. H. Troup, Esq., and O. D. Montague, Esq. The music was furnished by the Mechanics' Brass Band, under the leadership of Mr. John Everest of this city, and was excellent. The oration by Hon. Columbia Lancaster, it is said was very creditable, and will no doubt be published. Mr. Lancaster certainly knows how to address an assembly in Washington Territory, especially on the Banks of the Columbia river, on such a day as the Fourth of July. We should like to have heard him. The Declaration of Independence was read by Mr. S. A. Moreland of this city. One of the principal, and beautiful features of the day, was the flag raising, by the "Goddess of Libery," supported by "Temperance," "Prudence," "Fortitude," and "Justice." The grounds were handsomely arranged, and no expense was spared to make all the visitors to our sister city comfortable.

THE HONORIFICABILITUDINITATIBUSQUE SOCIETY.—This organization, notwithstanding the many disadvantages under which they labored, principally among which was the failure of the steamer to arrive in time with their masks, appeared in most ludicrous fantastic costumes, and had it not been for the disgraceful interference of some rowdies, would have had a very pleasant time. They intended to have marched to the Lincoln House and delivered the second oration from the balcony, but there being such a crowd, firing of crackers and other combustibles, that the horses became almost unmanageable, and fearing that some one might be injured by the fractious animals, they concluded to retire. We hope that the young gentlemen will not think that the belligerent and boisterous action of a few was the feeling of most of our good citizens. On the other hand, we think we may assure them that should they undertake another demonstration of the kind they will meet with hearty co-operation on the part of most of our community.

FRIGHTFUL RUNAWAY.—On Wednesday last Mr. E. S. Morgan obtained a pair of horses and carriage at the Young America Livery Stables, for the purpose of taking his family out for a quiet pic nic. The day was spent on the road, and in the vicinity of the Western end of the city until evening, when Mr. Morgan turned the heads of the team toward home. In coming to the city the horses showed a disposition to run away, and finally became fractious, and made a few jumps which broke the reins. At this critical situation of things Mr. M. made a vain dash in endeavoring to get a hold on the bridle reins of one of the horses, when the team escaped him and broke away at a fearful rate. One of the children, a little girl was badly bruised, Mrs. Morgan was also hurt considerably, but fortunately no lasting injuries were inflicted.

BE-D[illegible].—The shipping in our port on Wednesday last was quite attractive. The bark Jane A. Falkinburg Capt. Bunswell, was handsomely adorned with flags and signals, which caused no little remark. It takes a ship master to give grace to the Fourth of July, when in port, but if on a voyage, and it becomes necessary to reef top-sail, he has something else to think about. Capt. Bunswell will always have occasion to remember his experience on the Fourth of July six years ago, when his right arm was shot away in firing a salute, some four days from Honolulu; but his patriotism has never abated. Capt. Abbott had the A. A. Eldridge tastefully and gracefully decorated, but for the most of the bunting displayed in our harbor was upon the Falkinburg.

WARM DAYS AND PLEASANT ONES.—Monday and Tuesday last were intolerably warm days. A friend says the weather on those days was sufficient to reduce a man to a grease spot, and tells of two suits of clothes that were seen "talking to one another on Front street," the tenants of them having dropped through the sidewalk. On one occasion a large suit of clothes was seen walking in the vicinity of the Oregon Iron Works, supposed to belong to our very worthy Executive. Whatever may be said regarding the weather of Monday and Tuesday, it must be admitted that the Fourth of July, and yesterday challenge a comparison with the climate of any known part of the world for salubriousness.

FAST TIME.—The steamer Alert, Capt. Eph. Baughman, on Wednesday evening, made the quickest trip from Portland to Oregon City that has ever yet been accomplished by steam, having landed at the Lowell of the Pacific in one hour and eight minutes from the time of leaving the wharf in this city. On the return trip the route was run over in 55 minutes. This we consider fast time. We were a passenger on these occasions, and must say, that for pleasure, a ride to Oregon city on such a beautiful evening is superb.

PERSONAL.—Hon. M. C. Blake for many years Judge of the Probate Court San Francisco, arrived in our city on Sunday, a few days since, and will sojourn with us until the departure of the next steamer below. He is a tried faithful public servant and an honor to the bench on this coast. He expressed himself much pleased with Portland and a good deal surprised to see so many substantial buildings and permanent improvements. We are happy to have men of his stamp visit us, as their opinions are worth having.

BLACKFOOT DUST.—Four gentlemen arrived from the Blackfoot mining region on Tuesday evening, with more gold dust than they could conveniently lug. Three of them are Frenchmen, and one of them is a representative of Ireland. They are very plain, unassuming men, but the evidences are with them of their own wealth and that of Montana. Their pile has been variously estimated at from $100,000 to $150,000.

TREASURE.—A larger shipment of treasure than ordinary for this season so far, arrived by Wells, Fargo & Co.'s express from the upper country last night. Mr. Page, Messenger, had in charge about $190,000. In addition to this about $80,000 from Montana, and $20,000 from Auburn, Baker county, Oregon, arrived in private hands.

THE FOURTH AT COLUMBIA SLOUGH.—The residents near Columbia Slough celebrated the Fourth of July in appropriate style. O. Beal, Esq., of this city delivered an oration, a dinner was served, and singing was furnished to enliven the occasion, by the Oregon Glee Club. The ceremonies were performed at the Wilmot School House.

BASE BALL.—The Pioneer Base Ball Club will meet on their grounds at 6½ o'clock this evening.

MEETING OF THE COMMON COUNCIL.—An adjourned meeting of the Common Council was held at the Council Chamber last evening, at 8 o'clock, Mayor Failing presiding.

The following members were present: Messrs. Carson, Bennett, Hallock, Lowensdale, O'Connor, McCracken and Rosenheim.

The minutes of the two last regular meetings were read and approved.

Owners representing 1,500 feet of property adjacent to the proposed improvement of Salmon street west of Fifth street, remonstrated against the same, and the remonstrance was referred to the Committee on streets and public property.

The Committee on streets and public property reported favorably on three bills: [illegible] for repairs to gas pipes, [illegible] $13.48 and warrants were ordered for the same.

Superintendent Walker of the dredger, reported among other things that the new machinery would be ready for trial on Saturday next, and invited the members of the Council to witness its operation. The communication was placed on file.

Marshal Hoyt reported repairs done to the city flag staff and submitted bills attached for $122.51, expense of the same. The report was accepted, and bills ordered paid.

Warrants were ordered to be drawn in liquidation of claims against the city as follows: Wall Brothers, rent of Council Chamber for four months ending June 30th, $100. R. Pittock, rent of No. 4 Engine House for month of June, $40. Gas Company, $246.25 for gas for streets during the month of June, and $12.55 for gas for Council Chamber. Water Company $70. Bills & Co. shed for use of Multnomah Engine while the House was undergoing repairs, $40. Pay roll of dredger $445. J. P. Ward and P. Saunders, services as Police $100 each for month of June.

A bill of Capt. Paine, amounting to $110, for powder, etc., used in firing the salutes on the Fourth of July was laid upon the table.

Mr. Lowensdale from the committee on streets reported that J. H. Perry & Co. had completed the laying of the Nicolson pavement on First street, in front of blocks 1 and 11, and warrants were ordered in their favor for the sum of $2,407, [illegible] $240 to be paid to Messrs. Ladd & Tilton for use of patent on 1,148 yards. Which sum was ordered in favor of the last named persons.

On motion the Council adjourned.

THE FOURTH AT OREGON CITY.—We had the pleasure of attending the celebration at Oregon City. The day passed off most pleasantly. The arrangements had been so well made that nothing occurred to mar the felicity of the exercises. The Oration by Judge Shattuck was very highly spoken of by everybody. We unfortunately heard but little of it. The other exercises—procession, reading declaration, music by the band, dinner, toasts, etc., were each of a character creditable to the several persons concerned. The most beautiful thing of the celebration was the carriage containing thirty-six little girls in white, with garlands and flags representing the several States of the Union. After the ceremonies had closed, the pavilion, constructed of fir boughs, accidentally took fire, and for a few minutes created a considerable excitement and some alarm. It was entirely destroyed without, however, doing any further damage than to burn some of the lumber used for seats and tables. The young people wound up the celebration with a "gay and festive" ball at the court room, under the auspices of Messrs. Kelly and Harlay. It was a very pleasant affair.

FROM ELK CREEK.—A gentleman who is now in this city making purchases for the Elk Creek, Montana, mines, has received a letter from his partner in business there, which urges him to forward the supplies as speedily as possible. Clothing especially was scarcely to be obtained in the diggings, and stocks were being replenished from Helena from necessity. The same letter reports the burning of a steamer on the Missouri river.

CHANGE OF SCHEDULE.—A private dispatch gives a change of Schedule on the United States mail route from Portland to Olympia. Heretofore the mails have been obliged to lay over two days at Monticello. Under the change authorized the mails will leave Portland on Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays, connecting at Monticello, and going through without delay.

THE ZOUAVE CADETS.—Among the most pleasing events of the celebration, was that of the presence of the Zouave Cadets on the excursion with the Good Templars to Vancouver from this city. This company is composed of the youthful sons of our city, and they make a really fine appearance wherever they go. Their regular monthly meeting will be held at their armory this evening.

COUNTY COURT.—P. A. MARQUAM, Judge, Thursday, July 5th, 1866. H. M. Hudson was appointed constable for the North Portland precinct, in place of P. Martin, who failed to qualify.—The day was mostly spent in auditing accounts.

FROM COLORADO AND THE PLAINS.

We obtain the following from the Rocky Mountain News of the 10th ult.:

Judging from present indications, Colorado will receive more accessions to her population on the present season than in any single year since 1860. Travelers lately from the plains report the roads lined with immigrants and freight trains. In a report published by us, yesterday, of trains passing Kearney, it appears that two hundred and twenty-seven wagons passed that point on the first four days of the present month. Of these, one train of forty wagons was destined for Julesburg, Colorado. All the others are bound for Denver. This shows how the tide of emigration and trade is tending. Hitherto the register at Kearney has shown from two-thirds to three-fourths of the travel as being for Colorado, but the proportion in our favor seems to be increasing. For several days past, immigrant families have been reaching Denver in large numbers. Their white-topped wagons are almost constantly rolling through the streets, and clusters of them, and their snowy tents, at the margins of the Platte and Cherry Creek. Already the influx is being felt with good effect all through the mountains. The mining camps are rapidly growing in population, and the result will be more abundant labor and a consequent increased development and working of the mines.

The mining season is opening with more promise in Colorado than for at least three years past. Particularly is this the case in the gulch, bar and placer diggings. More gold will be taken from the washings in Park, Summit and Lake counties during 1866 than in any preceding year. Dealers in merchandise tell us that their sales of gum boots and other similar articles for miners' wear, are larger than in any spring since '63. That year a very large portion of their sales were to Montana and Idaho adventurers. This year their sales are confined to the wants of Colorado.

Almost daily reports come in of more or less serious trouble with Indians in various portions of the country. Many of these flying rumors are without foundation, but some are true. The southern counties of Colorado are seriously agitated over the prospect of difficulty with the Utes. Strolling bands of that tribe have wandered out upon the plains, as far down as Fort Lyon. They have undoubtedly committed some depredations, such as killing or driving off stock. Such acts, if continued will lead to more serious trouble. In Utah, another tribe or branch of the Ute confederation, is engaged in active hostilities against the whites. Blood has been shed upon both sides, and there is danger that a general war will grow out of it. If so, it will probably extend to Colorado, and fall with ruinous effect upon our western mining frontiers. Prospectors pushing out west should be cautious and watchful.

All Persons should test the merits of DR. HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS. While it is highly palatable as a beverage, it is unequalled as a tonic and invigorant. In the pursuit of fortune at the mines, many persons are exposed to the attacks of complaints of the digestive organs, and various kinds of fever. It is the very article that has been in demand at the mines. Its daily use will restore the tone of a deranged stomach, impart fresh vitality to the digestive functions, and cheer the spirits. Yet the Bitters is the safest of all stimulants; and the miner who is exposed to hot and dry, wet and cold, is certain to obtain a supply of the genuine Hostetter Bitters, and he will find it a certain safeguard to health. For particulars, see circulars and testimonials around each bottle.

Beware of impostors. Examine every bottle. See that it has our private U. S. Stamp unmutilated over the cork, with plantation scene, and our signature on a fine steel plate side label. See that our bottle is not refilled with spurious and deleterious stuff. Any person pretending to sell Plantation Bitters by the gallon or in bulk, is an impostor. Any person imitating this bottle or selling any other material therein, whether called Plantation Bitters or not, is a criminal under the U. S. Law, and will be so prosecuted by us. We already have our eye on several parties re-filling our bottles, &c., who will succeed in getting themselves into close quarters. The demand for Drake's Plantation Bitters from ladies, clergymen, merchants, &c., is incredible. The simple trial of a bottle is the evidence we present of their worth and superiority. They are sold by all respectable druggists, grocers, physicians, hotels, saloons, steamboats and country stores.

G. VENARD,

CHARTRES COFFEE!

Manufactory Established in June, 1851.

STEAM POWER, NOS. 625 AND 623 FRONT ST.

HAS CONSTANTLY ON HAND GROUND AND ROASTED COFFEE, GREEN COFFEE of the best qualities, CREAM OF TARTAR and SPICES of all sorts.

The undersigned, who has always enjoyed public confidence for the excellent quality of his Coffee, neglects nothing to justify the good name acquired by his productions, the sale of which daily increases. The acknowledged superiority of his merchandise, which commands here, and in the markets of the interior, a relatively higher price, excites the cupidity of some manufacturers, and every day he sees increasing the number of those who, by counterfeit or imitation of his mark, seek to deceive the public, palming upon them their inferior productions for the genuine G. VENARD CHARTRES COFFEE. This fraud can deceive nobody after a trial, but only adds to the favorable opinion of the consumers, the very flattering though unwilling testimony of the counterfeiters. Nevertheless, buyers should be forewarned, and placed on their guard against this practice.

BEWARE OF COUNTERFEITS.

HOSTETTER'S

CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS

READ AND REFLECT.

Make sure of HEALTH—"But how?" you ask.
We answer, 'tis an easy task,
Strengthen the STOMACH, and sustain
The NERVES, the servants of the brain.
The LIVER keep in active play
And regulate, from day to day,
Each organ aid, on Nature's plan,
Brace and refresh the INNER MAN,
And like a watch that's kept in chime
By constant care, with railroad time,
The system's tone and strength renew,
And thereby cheer the spirits, too.
"How," you inquire, "can this be done?
This Victory o'er Disease be won?"
"HOSTETTER'S BITTERS," we reply,
Is HEALTH'S SUPREME PROTECTION—TRY!

As a means of regenerating the disordered and enfeebled system, regulating every function of the internal organs, reviving the depressed spirits, invigorating the constitution, and prolonging life, no medicinal preparation, either of the past or the present time, has been so completely and universally successful as

HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS.

Against the vapors Fall prepare,
That fever-taint the heavy air.
Drink not unmixed the water found
In prairies, woods or marshy ground.
If sedentary toil you ply,
Nature you must assist—or die—
For when debarred from exercise
For artificial aid she cries.
Medicine's grand purpose and intent
Is threatened evil to prevent;
And if you'd be relieved or spared
From ills that crush the unprepared,
Hostetter's Bitters use—for note
They are the SUREST ANTIDOTE.

To set at defiance the miasma of unhealthy soils, the poison of unwholesome water, the effluvia of crowded work-rooms and factories, and the baneful influence of sedentary employments, it is only necessary to be fortified with

HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS.

Dyspepsia's pangs, that rack and grind
The body, and depress the mind;
Ague, that as they go and come,
Make life a constant martyrdom;
Colics and dysentric pains,
'Neath which the strong man's vigor wanes;
Bilious complaints, those tedious ills,
Ne'er conquered yet by drastic pills;
Dread diarrhœa that cannot be
Cured by destructive mercury;
Slow constitutional decay
That brings Death nearer, day by day;
Nervous prostration, mental gloom—
Heralds of madness or the tomb;
For these—though mineral nostrums fail—
Means of Relief at least we hail,
HOSTETTER'S BITTERS—medicine sure,
Not to prevent, alone, but cure.

In dyspepsia, fever and ague, bilious complaints, constitutional and nervous debility, constipation, sea-sickness, spasms, and in all complaints of Man or Woman, proceeding from casual or inherent weakness of the body, the one great remedy and restorative is

HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS.

To wanderers on sea or land,
From Polar shore to Tropic strand;
To households lone, in regions new,
And dwellers in great cities, too;
To soldiers in camp, fort and field,
Who need against disease a shield;
To miners, California bound,
And tillers of wet, marshy ground;
To feeble wives of fragile mold,
To young and middle aged, and old,
To those in health, who would enjoy
Heaven's best gifts without alloy;
To all the strengthless, weak and pale,
Who droop, yet know not what they ail,
Hostetter's Bitters we present
As Health's most potent element.

If there is any value in public opinion, or any weight in medical testimony, the very best and safest Tonic, Corrective and Alterative now before the world is

The Invasion of Canada.

Proclamation by General Sweeny to the People of Canada.

A PROCLAMATION.

To the People of British America: We come among you as the foes of British rule in Ireland. Exiled from that native land of ours by the oppression of British aristocracy and legislation, our people hunted down to the emigrant ships, or worse than that charnel of Governmental institutions, the poor-house, our countrymen torn from their homes and friends and hurried in droves [illegible] people of England and Ireland, our [illegible] to a foreign tyranny which [illegible] the Irish people and makes poverty and misery the sad rule of their condition, [illegible] with paupers' graves and [illegible] from the liberal [illegible] expressions of shame for the Government and indignation for the people—we have taken up the sword to strike down the oppressor's rod, to deliver Ireland from the tyrant, the despoiler, the robber. We have registered our oaths upon the altar of our country in the full view of Heaven, and sent up our vows to the throne of Him who inspired them. Then, looking about us for the enemy, we find him here—here in our midst, where he is most vulnerable and convenient to our strength, and have sworn to stretch forth the armed hand of Ireland and grapple with him. The battle has commenced, and we pledge ourselves to all the sacred memories of struggling liberty to follow it up at any cost to either of two alternatives—the absolute political independence and liberty of Ireland, or the demolition of our armies.

We have no issue with the people of these provinces, and wish to have none but the most friendly relations. Our weapons are for the oppressors of Ireland. Our blows shall be directed against the power of England; her privileges alone shall we invade, not yours. We do not propose to divest you of a solitary privilege you now enjoy. We will assail and asperse only the rights that are claimed and enjoyed by the Government of Great Britain—the right to make her American possessions the field and base of operations in a war against an enemy. We come to install our solvers in her possessions, and turn them against her in a war for Irish freedom. We are here not as murderers nor robbers, for plundering and spoliation. We are here as the Irish army of liberation, the friends of liberty against despotism, of democracy against aristocracy, of the people against their oppressors, of the ballot against the privileges of class, of progress and development against right and wrong, to conduct this contest according to the laws known to honorable warfare, in a manner worthy of the high object we aim for, and the sublime sentiments that actuated us. In a word, our war is with the armed power of England, and not with the people, not with these provinces. Against England, upon land and sea, until Ireland is free! And all who raise an arm to defend her, to frustrate and defeat us, belong to the common enemy, and as such will be dealt with. As we know how to recognize the services of our friends, so also do we know how to punish the depradations of our foes. Our work for Ireland accomplished, we leave to your own free ballots to determine your national and political standing and character, and shall rejoice to see, and assist to make, these limitless colonies spring from the foot of a foreign throne as free and independent, as proud as New York, Massachusetts or Illinois. To that yearning for liberty and aspiration after natural independence which swells the breast of every true son of every land, to your own manliness we leave these questions for settlement, confident that the dwarfed development of your vast resources and natural wealth make the chilling influence of English supremacy in wretched contrast with the national dignity and stupendous material prosperity of your neighboring people of the United States, under the stimulus of self-government and democratic institutions, constitutes a stronger argument in favor of co-operation with us and of the revolution in your political condition which this comparison suggests, than any discussion of the questions involved which we could offer here.

To Irishmen throughout these Provinces we appeal in the name of seven centuries of British iniquity and Irish misery and suffering, in the name of our murdered sires, our desolate homes, our desecrated altars, our millions of famine graves, our insulted name and race—to stretch forth the hand of brotherhood in the holy cause of fatherland, and smite the tyrant where we can in his work of murdering our nation and exterminating our people. We conjure you, our countrymen, who from misfortunes inflicted by the very tyranny you are serving, or from any other cause, have been forced to enter the ranks of the enemy, not to be the willing instrument of your country's death or degradation. If Ireland still speaks to you in the truest impulses of your hearts, Irishmen obey her voice. If you would not be miscreants, recreant to the first principles of your nature, engraven upon the very cornerstone of your being, raise not the hand of matricide to strike down the banner of Erin? No uniform, and surely not the blood-dyed coat of England can emancipate you from the natural law that binds your allegiance to Ireland, to liberty, to right, to justice. To the friends of Ireland, of freedom, of humanity, of the people, we offer the olive branch of peace and the honest grasp of friendship. Take it Irishmen, Frenchmen, Americans—take it all and trust it. To all who march to the call of the enemy, and rally under his standard to aid or abet his cause, we give the sword in as firm and earnest a gripe as ever did its work upon a foeman. We wish to meet with friends. we are prepared to meet with enemies. We shall endeavor to merit the confidence of the former, and the latter can expect from us but the leniency of a determined though generous foe, and the restraints and relations imposed by civilized warfare.

T. W. SWEENY,
Major General, Comd'g Armies of Ireland.

A FENIAN BATTLE.

[Correspondence of the New York Times.]

BUFFALO, June 2d.—I have just returned from a hurried visit to the new seat of war. A seat of war it is, or, at least, a stool of repentance to those doubting Canadians who all along have fancied and protested that the Fenian movement "wouldn't amount to much."

COLONEL O'NEIL.

O'Neil has served eight years in the regular army of the United States. In the late war he was one of the bravest cavalry officers attached to the Western army. He was a noted man of pluck—one of the kind who knew more about advances than retreats. It is related of him that once, when his regiment was surrounded by rebels, his Colonel ordered a retreat and told the men to get away as well as they could. "Not by a d—d sight, Colonel," said O'Neil, "let me command," and command he did, charging the enemy and beating them back. O'Neil was known to the regiment at all events, after that, and he is known to history as the man who captured the guerrilla John Morgan, whose sword he holds in his hand to day. This is the man who is leading the "Army of the Irish Republic" into Canada, and, from his prestige and precedents, he is likely to lead them till he meets with some more formidable obstruction than has yet presented itself. His men seem to be as full of confidence as of enthusiasm, and, at last accounts, like the soul of Old John Brown, they were marching on.

THE ADVANCE.

You know already how quietly and completely the Fenians occupied Fort Erie. The invading army to the panic-stricken Canadians seemed a force of at least fifteen thousand men. Cool reflection cut the number down to ten thousand. Afterthought about the means of transportation across the river dwindled a whole division down to a regiment only, say one thousand men. This is probably the entire force. This formidable army of occupation, after eating much bread and beef "contributed" by the Erieans, and drinking more or less whisky, native and imported, evacuated Erie as quietly as they occupied it. They moved more than twenty miles away; marching toward the Welland canal in the direction of Port Colborne. Reports say that they behaved well toward the private citizens, and badly toward sundry public works—letting the people alone and burning bridges, and trying to tear up locks on the canal. There was, notwithstanding, a panic among the people—women, children, and even men flying to the woods and leaving their pantry and larder doors conveniently open. And as far as we know, the army is still "marching on" for what point does not appear exactly, but it is quite certain that they are so marching as to draw whatever British force may take the field after them, for they manifest no immediate desire to find an enemy suddenly and inconveniently in their path.

THE FIRST BATTLE.

There has been a fight—such as it is, yet quite as much of a fight as Scott's of half a century ago which has become historical. That is, there were more men engaged on both sides, more fighting, and the battle occupied more hours. It happened in this wise. When the Fenians left Frenchman's Creek early yesterday morning, they moved toward Ridgeway, on the route to Port Colborne, marching in good order and keeping scouts ahead. Ere long scouts came back with the report that there was a considerable force of Canadian volunteers in front, marching to meet the Fenians. This was three miles from Ridgeway, eighteen from Port Colborne, the place known as Lime Stone Ridge. Over a fence and into a field, and the Fenians formed in line of battle, Colonel O'Neil in command, with Colonels Starr and O'Brien as Aids. We have all sorts of stories about this battle, but they sum up in this: The volunteers came down the road and into the field, taking a position at least three fourths of a mile away [illegible] and [illegible] with artillery on either side. Then an advance of skirmishers on either side and a lively exchange of musketry. Both sides advanced, firing briskly; next an order for the skirmishers on the Fenian side to fall back naturally enough; an enthusiastic admixture of volunteers, who deemed the falling back a retreat, a severe punishment for this temerity—the Fenians charging bayonets—the volunteers in turn falling back in retreat, almost a rout. At any rate, these volunteers thirsting a moment before for Fenian blood ran close upon [illegible] for more than two miles, while the Fenians, abandoning the pursuit, calmly proceeded towards Port Colborne.

The Fenians are reported to have fought like devils, throwing off hats, coats, and even shirts and literally "spoiling for glory." Many of these men were old soldiers of the late war and still wore caps and belts bearing the letters U. S. It was their trade, while the Canadian volunteers never smelt powder other than that fired on the Queen's birthday. The Fenian victory was easy and decisive.

But there were losses—six Fenians killed and fifteen wounded, while the volunteers left twenty-three killed and wounded on the field, and were in a fair or foul way of leaving more, if they hadn't left the field itself "entirely."

Of the straggling volunteers, from seventy to one hundred were captured but the Fenians were provisionless, and were glad to let their prisoners go. Scattered arms and accoutrements, and cast off clothing marked the flight of the volunteers, and gave strong proof of the panic following the pursuit.

THE RETURN TO FORT ERIE.

After proceeding some way toward Port Colborne, the Fenian army, considering, no doubt, the necessity for food supplies, and possibly reinforcements from the American side, returned to Fort Erie and encamped. Flushed with victory, shortly thereafter, for the first time in the history of the invasion, the invaders were generally flushed with whisky. They were terribly hungry, for having pretty much eaten out the place on the first visit. But in the course of the night, and in spite of policing the river, considerable supplies were sent across and more men to join the army. The Michigan and sundry tugs made every effort to prevent reinforcing; orders were issued to fire on boats passing to the Canada side, the ferry boat was stopped, but, nevertheless, the private boats and ferries did a lively business, and large numbers of curious men as well as fighting men, crossed the river.

WAITING FOR THE REGULARS.

Thus waiting, not only for reinforcements and supplies, but for the regulars, whom rumor brings in a formidable force, the camp presented a comparatively quiet and curious scene. The main anxiety seemed to be to get something to eat, not to say drink, and the threatened approach of the regulars produced no fear.

Regulars and volunteers are said to be coming from two directions—one column from Port Colborne, numbering 2,000 strong, infantry and artillery, and another column under Colonel Peacock, with five companies of the Sixteenth Regulars, two batteries of the Tenth Toronto Volunteers, one battery of the Forty seventh Royal Artillery, and more volunteers.

With this force a collision at some point is inevitable. The Fenians are as good as cut off from retreat, in any considerable numbers, to the American side, and they must and will, fight.

THE SECOND SHORT FIGHT.

We have rumors, as I am about to close my letter, of a little affair near Fort Erie, to-day. After the temporary evacuation of the Fenian camp at that place, it was occupied by two or more companies of Canadian volunteers, who, among other duties had charge of a tug-load of about forty Fenians, captured at Ridgeway. All at once, two hundred Fenians came over the hill and attacked first, the tug and then the town. The tug dropped down the stream, and the volunteers, after a short resistance, retreated and soon surrendered to the pursuing Fenians. No prisoners taken; one or two were wounded on either side, and the whole affair did not last more than twenty minutes. It was short, but for the Fenians it was a second success.

CAPTURE OF FOUR HUNDRED FENIANS BY UNITED STATES BOATS.

BUFFALO, June 3d—9 A. M.—The Fenian force evacuated Fort Erie last night, and most of them attempted to reach this shore, but only a small number succeeded, and about 700 were gobbled up by the United States boats guarding the river, and are now prisoners under the steamer Michigan's guns at Black Rock. The English force, under Colonel Peacock, are now in possession of Fort Erie, without a skirmish. The ultimate disposition of the prisoners is a matter of uncertainty but the British Minister has been telegraphed to.

Colonel O'Neal and Staff are captured. The only Fenians captured by the English appear to have been thirty-two pickets, who were left by their friends in the hurry.

BUFFALO, June 3d—3 P. M.—Have just returned from the United States steamer Michigan's. She is anchored in the Niagara river, about four miles below here. A large flat-boat is fastened to her under her guns, having on board about four hundred men, as near as can be guessed at, but not as many as seven hundred, as first stated. The officers are on board the Michigan under guard.

The Courier gives the following list of killed and wounded in the two engagements, is as correct as can now be obtained.

Fenians—Edward Scully, Cincinnati, killed; James Geraghty, Cincinnati, mortally wounded and left on the field; Michael Porter, Buffalo, slightly wounded; Michael Bailey, Buffalo, wounded in the breast, lying at the house of Mrs. Stanton; Thomas Gilborn, Schuylkill, Pennsylvania, bayoneted in the neck; Michael McLaughlin, Cincinnati, in the thigh; John Lynch, Ohio, in the thigh bone; Welch, Indiana, slightly; Thomas Rafferty, Cincinnati, in the abdomen; Thomas Madden, Anderson, Madison County, in the thigh; John Ryan, a boy seventeen years of age, Terre Haute, Indiana, in the abdomen; Matthew Crouty, Cincinnati, wounded in the head; Michael Rugy, Tennessee, in the arm; John Lynch, in the thigh; Michael Rafferty, Louisville, in the arm; James Kugon, Louisville, in the ankle.

British—Lieutenant Colonel Roalmoth, killed; Captain Richard S. King, of Port Colborn, Welland Battery, two wounds in the ankle joint (since brought over to Buffalo and leg amputated by Dr. Miner;) John Huberson, Port Colborne, Welland Battery, in the knee; John Brady, Welland Battery, in the knee; William Harvey, Toronto, wounded in the knee; Malcomb McEachern, Toronto, killed; Charles Langsden, Toronto, mortally wounded; Corporal Newborn, Toronto, killed; William H. Vandersmissen, Toronto, through hip.

The following are additional: Second Lieutenant Edward K. Lonergan, of Buffalo, was wounded. Seven or eight men of the Buffalo regiment were wounded seriously.

The Fenian loss is about twenty five, the British about fifty, among whom were a number of officers. Five of the Seventeenth Irish regiment, from Kentucky, were wounded.

The Herald of June 4th, describes the excitement in New York the previous day:

"The crowds around the bulletin boards, notwithstanding the rain, were as large as on the two preceding days, and as time flew on and no dispatches were announced, the people became very impatient.

"At last an extra was issued, and the boys went along shouting 'Capture of Toronto,' and fooled a large number of people into purchasing it, for the sheet only contained a repetition of the news announced by the Herald in the morning. Then came the news announcing the retreat of Colonel O'Neil and the greater part of his men and their surrender to the forces of the United States, and the previous excitement was considerably dampened, though most people breathed freer, as they would have done had they perceived a somnambulist move away from the edge of a high and rocky precipice. They felt relieved that the Fenians had escaped certain death, and hoped that they would not by any means fall into the hands of their enemies, whose unrelenting disposition is so well known. Many people recalled the arguments of the British and Canadian press in favor of loyalty towards the leaders of the American rebellion, and wondered if such principles would actuate the British authorities in their treatment of the Fenians who fell into their hands in the retreat. It is generally conceded that this movement was cleverly carried out in front of the enemy, and the only regret was that the Fenian corps had not escaped the vigilance of the United States authorities.

"This was the substance of the opinions expressed in regard to the news, and as the evening drew on the crowds in the streets were becoming more impatient for further news than ever, and the cry began to arise in all quarters, Where is Sweeny? or, What is Sweeny doing? Confidence in his plans were generally expressed, however, and there was a universal expectation to hear from him soon, and in tones of thunder."

At Roberts headquarters the following bulletin was received and posted during the progress of the fighting:

[OFFICIAL.]

The Irish Republican army, under command of Colonel John O'Neil, met the British troops at a place called Ridgeway. The British forces were composed of militia and a regiment of regulars, the Queen's Own. The British outnumbered the Irish army two to one. The fighting was desperate and lasted about three hours, during which time the Fenians were twice driven back, but again regained their position. Finally the Irish army charged the British at the point of the bayonet, and drove them from the ground, remaining masters of the field. The Indianapolis troops led the final charge. The battlefield was covered with the debris of the beaten army.

ORDER OF ATTORNEY GENERAL SPEED.

The following important order was addressed to all United States Marshals and District Attorneys:

WASHINGTON, June 4, 1866.

By direction of the President you are directed to cause the arrest of all prominent, leading or conspicuous persons called Fenians, who you may have probable cause to believe have been or may be guilty of violation of the neutrality laws of the United States.

JAMES SPEED,
Attorney General.

A Copperhead Story Exploded.

The organ of the President's policy—the old National Intelligencer, of Washington—published on Wednesday last a statement to this effect: "That at a meeting of the Ohio Republican State Committee recently held at Columbus at which seventeen members were present, twelve voted to sustain the President's policy and five voted to sustain Congress." Colonel Forney—the Dead Duck—immediately telegraphed to ascertain the truth of this statement, and received the following answer:

"No such meeting has been held by the Republican State Central Committee. There are not seventeen men in Ohio anywhere, outside of a Federal office holders' prayer meeting or a Copperhead Convention, out of whom twelve can in favor of the President's policy could be picked.

J. W. COMLY, Editor Ohio State Journal."

So that bogus story was immediately squelched. The hangers-on about the White House are doing an infinite amount of harm to the country at this time. They impose upon the President's credulity and lead him to believe that the scale with Congress he it will kick the beam as soon as the people have an opportunity to express their will. Nothing is farther from the truth. The convictions of the masses in the matter of reconstruction are firmly and deeply fixed. No argument, duplicity or force of any sort can induce them to place the reins of the Government into the hands of those who were lately engaged in a wicked and vindictive rebellion. They know that the spirit which animated the rebels still lives, for they have evidences almost daily of its vitality. While they have hope that this feeling of animosity against the Government and of retribution at the result of the war will pass away with time, they are determined to wait the necessary period and so adjust political matters as to remove all causes which have a tendency to revive sectional animosities. This course is a perfectly legitimate one on the part of the loyal men of the country, born of patriotism and good sense, and will receive the approval of the civilized world.—St Louis Democrat, June 8th.

A NEW CITY.—The New York Nation has the following:

We get from Richmond more important news than that Davis is to be tried there. One of the Old Virginia dreams, that somewhere near the mouth of the James a great city was sure to spring up, at last seems not unlikely to be realized. It is not to be at Norfolk, however, but at Newport News. From that harbor to Cincinnati the distance is shorter by one hundred and ninety three miles than that from Cincinnati to Baltimore, and two hundred miles shorter than that from Cincinnati to New York. Travel along this line is not affected by the inclemency of winter. Money has been provided by the Northern capitalists, and within three years the Covington and Ohio Railroad is to be built, and the chain of communication completed by short links between Richmond and Lynchburg and Richmond and the coast. A French company has deposited $3,000,000 with the State Government as security for the completion of the James River and Kanawa Canal. Thus the new rival of New York is to be connected with the great West by the shortest railway and the best line of water communication, and Virginia which under the old system literally manured the ground above her iron mines with rich plumbago ore, in order that tobacco might be cultivated by slave labor, under the new system may yet become the greatest of States.

REBELS DISFRANCHISED IN WEST VIRGINIA.—West Virginia has just voted on the question of disfranchising rebels. She has disfranchised them. Like Missouri, she has exercised her constitutional right to prescribe the qualifications of her electors. The election called out a very full vote, and was peculiarly exciting. The Copperheads and Coppertails ("Conservatives") voted solid against such an exemplification of State rights, and the Republicans all voted for it. The result, as far as known in Wheeling on Thursday, shows a majority of more than ten thousand for rebel disfranchisement. The following are the returns received:

For the Amendment—Berkeley county, 501 majority; Wood, 451 majority; Taylor, 180 majority; Marion, 350 majority; Monongalia, (part) 241 majority; Ritchie, 200 majority; Jefferson, 125 majority.

Against it—Ohio county, 370; Wetzel, 180.

SHIPMENT OF FRENCH FLOUR FROM LIVERPOOL FOR THE UNITED STATES.—Our Consul at Liverpool writes, under date of May 18, as follows:

Some two weeks ago I advised you of the shipment from this port to New York of some 15,000 bushels of wheat. I now have to inform the Department of State that the City of Cork, which sails to-morrow, takes as freight 498 sacks of French wheat flour, valued at £1,016 sterling. I think this is the first instance of the shipment of French flour from this port for the United States, and probably the first time that flour has ever been shipped as merchandise from Europe to America.

DISGUSTED.—The St. Louis Democrat says:

The Copperhead papers are intensely disgusted with Seward's speech, and don't like Stanton's any better. The coupling by Seward of the Democratic party with the rebels, in the reminiscence he gave, turned the Democratic stomach.

ALLEN'S

LUNG BALSAM!

The Remedy for Curing

CONSUMPTION, COUGHS, COLDS,

Asthma, Croup,

Diseases of the Throat, Bronchitis, Pains and Oppression of the Chest and Lungs, Difficult Breathing and all the Diseases of the Pulmonary Organs.

ITS ACTION IS EXPECTORANT, ALTERATIVE, SUDORIFIC, SEDATIVE, DIAPHORETIC AND DIURETIC, which renders it one of the most valuable remedies known for curing diseases of the lungs. It excites expectoration, and causes the lungs to throw off the phlegm or mucus; CHANGES THE SECRETIONS AND PURIFIES THE BLOOD; heals the irritated parts; gives strength to the digestive organs; brings the liver to its proper action, and imparts strength to the whole system. Such is the immediate and satisfactory effect, that it is WARRANTED TO BREAK UP THE MOST DISTRESSING COUGH IN A FEW HOURS' TIME, if not of too long standing. IT IS WARRANTED to give entire satisfaction even in the MOST CONFIRMED CASES OF CONSUMPTION! IT IS WARRANTED NOT to produce costiveness (which is the case with most remedies) or affect the head, as it contains no Opium in any form. IT IS WARRANTED TO BE PERFECTLY HARMLESS to the most delicate child, although it is an active and powerful remedy for restoring the system. THERE IS NO REAL NECESSITY FOR SO MANY DEATHS BY CONSUMPTION when ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM will prevent it if only taken in time.

WATER WHEELS.
POWER PLEDGED EQUAL
TO THE
Best Overshot Wheel in Existence.

LEFFEL'S
American Double Turbine Water Wheel

IS NOW MANUFACTURED BY THE OREGON IRON Works in the city of Portland, and orders for the same can be filled immediately. We have a small supply of the different sizes, from 10 inches to 48 inches in diameter. That we may know the proper sized wheel you require, measure your water in the following way: Take the width of the stream, the average depth, and the distance it flows in a minute.

All the wheels now in use give universal satisfaction. Both the construction of the wheel and its performance, commend it to the better judgment of all minds capable of appreciating the highest development of mechanical construction. Therefore it has conquered the most violent opposition.

This wheel is especially adapted to mining purposes. It is light, and can be easily packed into the mountains. Wheels weighing from 100 to 200 pounds will yield from 10 to 40 horse power, under a head of 25 or 30 feet. They are the cheapest wheel to set up known, as they are so arranged as to produce the greatest power possible from the water used.

The prices of these wheels have now been reduced to the ability of all. Come and see them or send for a circular to Medical.

DR. CHAS. H. TOZER'S
PRIVATE MEDICAL INSTITUTE,
N. E. Cor. Jackson and Kearney Sts,
SAN FRANCISCO

THE GREAT ERADICATOR OF SPECIAL COMPLAINTS, FORMERLY OF LOCKE HOSPITAL, LONDON, EIGHT YEARS IN SACRAMENTO, AND THE LAST THIRTY YEARS IN SAN FRANCISCO.

DR. TOZER'S

Experience is of forty years standing, and during that time has met with unparalleled success in the treatment of all those diseases generally known as Venereal or Chronic.

It is impossible here to mention all the diseases with which he is familiar; some, perhaps, will not be out of place. The most formidable, the most destructive to mankind is Self Abuse. The brain being the seat of the disease the whole system suffers in consequence. I will here enumerate some of the symptoms, so that those afflicted may be able to form an opinion in regard to their complaints and seek advice in time, thereby saving themselves a world of suffering. Nervous Debility, Loss of Memory, Pain in the Limbs and Back, Palpitation of the Heart, Trembling of the Limbs, Headache, and an Aversion to Social Society, especially that of Females. There are a great many more, but these are sufficient, and should you be suffering from any of them, call on DR. TOZER, and he will cure you in a short time, without any interruption in your business—or state your case by letter and there will be no occasion for your calling at the office.

Stricture of the Urethra

Is another formidable enemy to health. Send for one of my circulars on that disease, and inform yourself of its terrible results. The worst cases cured in a few days.

Venereal Diseases

In all their various forms, either Primary, Secondary or Hereditary, completely eradicated from the system. Your constitution being restored to perfect health, there will be no danger of handing down to your children that terrible disease known as Scrofula.

Syphilitic Disease

As it presents itself on this coast, is of a more frightful character than that seen in the Atlantic States, arising from the fact of its being a compound of Spanish, Chinese and Sandwich Island diseases. Those of you who have visited the two latter countries doubtless have seen the dreadful effects of it on both the native and foreign population. It requires altogether a different mode of treatment.

The Old Formula

Of Ricord, Acton and Hardwicke are of little account, except to dry up the disease on the surface, leaving the poison in the blood, which, sooner or later, will show itself as a secondary disease in an aggravated form. These facts I have learned by experience. I think that I can say without boasting that I have seen more patients in these diseases than any other physician in California, dating as it does from 1849. If [illegible] you, therefore, to think well, before you employ [illegible].

Who is the proper one to consult—an old experienced one or one who has recently settled amongst you?

My Plan is Purely Vegetable,

Destroying the disease and purifying the blood, so that there is no danger of secondary symptoms.

Rheumatism, Neuralgia,

And diseases arising from the use of Mercury, such as pains in the shin-bones, swelling of the different joints of the body, running sores, etc., etc., and impurities of the blood, cured in a short time by the use of my VEGETABLE MIXTURES, known only to myself.

Diseases Peculiar to Females,

Such as Retention, Painful Menstruation, etc., etc., has been my study for a great number of years, and I can safely promise a perfect cure in a short time.

Be not deterred from calling on Dr. TOZER from delicacy or a fear of exposure, as the Doctor is a man whom you can trust, and all cases are treated with the strictest secrecy.

My Female Pills

Are the best ever used in this climate for the Suppression of the Monthly Sickness. Every lady should have them in case of necessity. Price, $5. Consultation at the office or by letter, FREE. All letters returned or destroyed. Office hours from 9 A. M. till 8 P. M.
